

Helping your students reach their full potential...

A series of interactive seminars looking at: motivation, behaviour, alternative learning strategies, affirmation, interactions with adults in authority, a vox-pop of 50 people talking about teachers they worked the hardest for. Distilling best practice into practical tools for teachers.

Facilitator: Gary Richardson

Designer and principle facilitator of the Energize Peer Mentoring Course*
17 years experience working with young people in a variety of settings including outdoor centres, schools, Further education, secure units, E2E centres, youth clubs, detached settings.

* The Energize Peer Mentoring Course has been run in John Bunyan Upper School, Stratton Upper School, Mark Rutherford Upper School, Biddenham Upper School, Sharnbrook Upper School, Weavers School, Energize E2E centre, secure units and youth groups.

In each case we have witnessed noteworthy results in high achievers and disaffected students alike, who gained an understanding of their leadership potential and/or challenged the script they carry in their minds about themselves.

Course designed to unpack lessons from a variety of settings where disaffected students have been able to achieve success, including the Energize Peer Mentoring course which has been run in John Bunyan Upper School, Stratton Upper School, Mark Rutherford Upper School, Biddenham Upper School, Sharnbrook Upper School, Weavers School, Energize E2E centre, secure units and youth groups.
